

The Noteables

"Big band...smaller packaging."

TSgt Cully Joyce

*Noncommissioned Officer-In-Charge
Music Director*

The United States Air Force Heartland of America Band is proud to present THE NOTEABLES, the squadron's dynamic new "little big band." This sleek, newly-reshaped 14-member jazz ensemble presents exciting, uplifting music inspiring audiences to increased patriotism. The group also shares stirring accounts of the bravery and self-sacrifice of our expeditionary Airmen serving around the globe. From formal performances in grand auditoriums to casual concerts in the park, THE NOTEABLES is in constant demand.

THE NOTEABLES has appeared in concert and on national television with Bob Hope, jazz trumpeter Bobby Shew, composer/arranger Frank Mantooth, former Tonight Show band leader Doc Severinsen, and pop singer Lee Greenwood.

The high level of talent showcased by each member of THE NOTEABLES enables the group to perform with unparalleled excitement and versatility. With their extensive repertoire of specially tailored standards, energetic favorites and Big Band classics, highlighted by instrumental and vocal soloists, THE NOTEABLES is sure to please audiences of any age.

THE NOTEABLES honorably represents more than 350,000 Air Force professionals around the world who diligently watch over the skies protecting and defending all those who cherish freedom. We hope you afford us the opportunity to share the messages of excellence, sacrifice, courage and commitment of our brave men and women...the deployed Airmen of the United States Air Force.
